ECCENTRICA APPOINTS AUTOMOTIVE EXECUTIVE

MAURIZIO REGGIANI AS ADVISOR

Former Lamborghini executive brings over four decades of automotive experience to restomod manufacturer

[San Marino July 15, 2024] Eccentrica today announced the appointment of Maurizio Reggiani, a visionary in the automotive industry with experience at Maserati, Bugatti, and as former CTO and Vice President of Motorsport at Lamborghini, as an advisor to the company. In his new role at Eccentrica, Reggiani will provide strategic and technical guidance, foster innovation, and offer expert insights during the production phase of the Eccentrica.

Reggiani's career spans over four decades, until his retirement at the end of 2023, marking the end of an illustrious career.

"Welcoming Maurizio Reggiani to Eccentrica is a significant milestone for us, especially as we prepare to begin production," said Emanuel Colombini, founder and president of Eccentrica, "As we aim to establish a strong presence in the restomod arena, having the ability to tap Maurizio's expertise will be invaluable. As the pioneer behind the modern-day supercar, his experience, technical prowess and forward-thinking approach will be critical in pushing our vision to new heights as we establish a lasting legacy within the automotive community."

Reggiani stated, "I am excited to contribute to and encourage Eccentrica's ambitious projects. Their blend of heritage and modern innovation is certainly inspiring, resulting in a bold approach to reshape the restomod industry. I look forward to helping realize their project and I am sure that Eccentrica's work will strongly resonate with true car enthusiasts."

The announcement comes as the company prepares for the global debut of the Eccentrica V12 at The Quail, A Motorsports Gathering, in August. The event will showcase the fully drivable vehicle featuring the naturally aspirated V12 engine for the first time, providing a preview of the brand's future in luxury, innovation, and performance.
